

Parody sung to 2008 Yeomen of Regard Honoree Steve Malionek by the Yeomen Warders. Sung to the tune of “Didst thou not, oh, Leonard Meryll” from the Act I Finale of The Yeomen of the Guard.

Jon: Didst thou not, oh Steve Malionek, volunteer our pikes to start? Labouring long, with organ scrap wood, thou turned out these works of art!

All Yeo: Steve Malionek, Steve Malionek, thou turned out these works of art!

Ed: Didst thou not, when finding out that there were twelve of us, not eight, Labour thou yet even longer, making sure that we were great?

All Yeo: Steve Malionek, laboured longer, making sure that we were great!

Jon: Didst thou, labouring through the evening, finish off the pikes and so, sacrificing Valentine’s Day, save thy honor and our show!

All Yeo: Steve Malionek, Valentine’s Day! [PAUSE], [SPOKEN] What were you thinking?

Ed: Now, in honor of thy labours, which we greatly ’preciate, Accept this gift card, from the Yeomen: dinner with thy lovely date!

All Yeo: Steve Malionek, Valentine’s Day! Dinner with thy lovely date!
